Privacy

SafetyCulture Care gives priority to protecting the privacy of your personal information, by handling personal information in a responsible manner and in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

How we collect your personal information

We usually collect your personal information from you or your agents. We may also collect personal information from our agents and service providers; insurers and insurance reference bureaus; people who are involved in a claim or assist them in investigating or processing claims, including third parties claiming under your policy, witnesses and medical practitioners; third parties who may be arranging insurance cover for a group that you are a part of; law enforcement, dispute resolution, statutory and regulatory bodies; marketing lists and industry databases; and publicly available sources.

Why SafetyCulture Care collects your personal information

We collect your personal information to enable us to provide products and services, including to process and settle claims; make offers of products and services provided by SafetyCulture Care and their related companies, brokers, intermediaries, business partners and others that SafetyCulture Care have an association with that may interest you; and conduct market or customer research to determine those products or services that may suit you.

You can choose not to receive product or service offerings from SafetyCulture Care (including product or service offerings from us on behalf of our brokers, intermediaries and/or our business partners) or our related companies by calling SafetyCulture Care on 1300 164 884, EST 9am to 5pm Monday to Friday. If you do not provide your personal information required by SafetyCulture Care, they may not be able to provide you with their services, including settlement of claims.

Who SafetyCulture Care discloses your personal information to

We may disclose your personal information to others with whom they have business arrangements for the purposes listed in the paragraph above or to enable them to offer their products and services to you. These parties may include service providers, insurers, intermediaries, reinsurers, insurance reference bureaus, related companies, advisers, persons involved in claims, external claims data collectors and verifiers, parties that we have an insurance scheme in place with under which you purchased your policy (such as an industry association). Disclosure may also be made to government, law enforcement, dispute resolution, statutory or regulatory bodies, or as required by law.

Disclosure overseas

Your personal information may be disclosed to our related entities, business partners, insurers, reinsurers and service providers that may be located in Australia or overseas. The countries this information may be disclosed to will vary from time to time, but may include Germany, United Kingdom, United States of America, Philippines, India, and other countries where SafetyCulture Care or its related entities have a presence or engages subcontractors.

SafetyCulture Care regularly reviews the security of its systems used for sending personal information overseas. Any information disclosed may only be used for the purposes of collection detailed above and system administration.

When personal information is shared overseas, there is a possibility whomever receives the information may be required to disclose it under a foreign law.

Access to your personal information and complaints

You may ask for access to the personal information we hold about you and seek correction by calling 1300 164 884, EST 9am to 5pm Monday to Friday.

SafetyCulture Care's Privacy Policy contains details about how you may make a complaint about a breach of the privacy principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and how we deal with complaints. SafetyCulture Care's Privacy Policy is available at www.care.safetyculture.com/privacy.

Telephone call recording

We may record incoming and/or outgoing telephone calls for claims, training or verification purposes. Where we have recorded a telephone call, they can provide you with a copy at your request, where it is reasonable to do so.

Your consent

By providing SafetyCulture Care with personal information, you and any other person you provide personal information for consent to these uses and disclosures until you tell us otherwise. If you wish to withdraw your consent, including for such things as receiving information on products and offers by SafetyCulture Care, our related entities or persons we have an association with, please contact us.
